Letter from the President

Welcome Ladies and Gentlemen to the Thoroughbred Chorus' 60th Annual Show. We have a spectacular performance planned for you. You may have noticed already that this is a special occasion for the Thoroughbreds. In the lobby you experienced 67 years of Louisville barbershop history on display. Please take the opportunity during the intermission and after the show to explore it even further.

In order to celebrate this 60th anniversary, we have invited our past directors and Gold medal winning quartets to perform with us. While not everyone could join us, we have recognized their valuable contributions in this program. And there is no better way to celebrate this anniversary than to invite our old friends to join us. There are over 60 past member of the Chorus singing on stage with the current members throughout the show.

Special thanks to all the volunteers that made this show possible: especially our wives and significant others that support us in our love of music. Thank you to all the workers in the lobby that are selling CDs, hot apple cider, coffee and sweets. Remember, all concession sales go to The House of Ruth, a local association of persons caring for families and individuals affected by HIV and AIDS. They provide advocacy and support for their physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual needs.

Finally, thank you to all the members of the Thoroughbred Chorus that have worked so hard to make the show a success. Your many hours of work will be well rewarded.
Ladies and Gentlemen, thank you for being a part of our celebration as we commemorate our 60th Annual Show. Please enjoy the show!!

Yours in Harmony,
Eric Hunstiger
President

Dave Duncan, Music Director

Here we go again! Welcome! Thank you for your continued interest in and participation with the Thoroughbreds. With so many performing arts opportunities here in Louisville, we know we have to compete to satisfy, entertain, educate and celebrate with our audiences.

People just like you have discovered that for many of us, the pace of our lives creates a feeling that we are the sum of many parts; family friends, career, sports leagues, the arts… you name it. For more than 60 years now, the same can be said for the Thoroughbreds. During the last few years, there have been many questions and a cloudy crystal ball as our members also struggled to balance all of these things. We're stronger now and growing again.

Some of my responsibilities, along with the Music Team and the Board of Directors are to forecast, plan and build the future of the chorus. Today's younger folks do not understand why everything they could possibly want to read or consult is not readily available online. We are just beginning to recognize that young people raised with television, computers and electronic games do not learn in the same way as those brought up with books as the primary source of information, learning and entertainment.

Through a strong commitment to quality and innovation we literally hold the future in our hands and voices. It is up to us to help prepare the next generation of singers and performers and we need your help to accomplish this important task. Without an audience, all of our careful preparation has no chance to reach out and change lives.

Thank you for all of your support during the past 60 some years; it's certainly changed our lives and we couldn't have come this far without you. If you enjoy our performances, tell everyone you know and invite them to come along and join us for the journey. If you find something you don't enjoy, tell us and we'll make improvements.

We hope you don't sit back and relax during the show; we want you on the edge of your seat with excitement and anticipation. The future is in your hands and that future starts today!

Here's to the next 60 years!

Reed Yadon, Emcee

Reed Yadon is a Louisville native, and is returning for the second year as emcee of the Thoroughbreds' Annual Show.
Reed is a meteorologist and helicopter pilot for WHAS 11, forecasting weather for over 25 years in Louisville. With the exception of college and the Army, Louisville has been home. Don't be surprised if you think you've heard his voice in other places. He records flight arrival and departure announcements heard in airports around the world. Reed's television work has been recognized with numerous national awards including two Emmy's. We appreciate Reed's time, talents and friendship with the Thoroughbreds!

The Citations

The Citations, named after the great triple crown winner, were formed in July of 1965 and won the Cardinal District Championship that same October. Having qualified for the Barbershop Society's International Contest on 10 occasions, their best finish was 7th place in 1972. The original members were Bob Netherton, tenor; Jim Miller, lead; Ken Buckner, bari; Bob Burnett, bass. Bill Myers replaced Bob Burnett in 1969. This was the only personnel change over the next 10 years.

The Citation performed on over 300 chapter shows throughout most of the United States and Canada. They are proud to have traveled to Viet Nam in 1972 to entertain the troops there.

The quartet officially retired in 1978. Since then Bob (The Snook) Burnett and Bob (Nutzy) Netherton have both passed away. They will be deeply missed.

Bluegrass Student Union

Bluegrass Student won the 1978 SPEBSQSA International competition. They distinguished themselves by performing at a high level of proficiency on stage and in the recording studio throughout their career, and by continually improving their art, even after winning their gold medals. They credit much of their success to their coaches, Mary Jo Hatton Thompson, Don Clause, Ron Riegler, Gene Stickler and Ed Weber, to their chorus Director, Jim Miller, and to their long-time arrangers, Ed Waesche and Walter Latzko. Allen Hatton (tenor) Ken Hatton (lead) Dan Burgess (baritone) Rick Staab (bass). Ken Hatton later sang lead with the 2000 Cardinal District Champion SENSATIONS quartet, who earned semi-finalist status (20th place) in the 2001 International Quartet Competition. Ken also sang lead with The Exchange, semi-finalist (20th place) in the 2003 International Quartet Competition. After being contacted by members of the "Harmonet", an internet barbershop harmony discussion group, the quartet was persuaded to re-release its recordings in a complete works 3-CD set, with extensive liner notes. As a result, there was a strong resurgence of interest in live performances by the Bluegrass, and they were lured back to the boards. They are still going strong after 25 years worth of "good close harmony" between the same four friends & invaluable to the T-breds history.

Interstate Rivals

The Interstate Rivals formed in August of 1982, and in October of the same year were crowned Cardinal District Champions. In July of 1983, they made their first appearance on the International competition stage in Seattle and finished in tenth place. This early competitive success continued by jumping to sixth , third, and then second place silver medalists over the next three years. Their ascent up the international ladder was culminated in July, 1987 by wining the gold medal in Hartford, CT.

Following a career that saw them perform in over thirty states and seven foreign countries, the Rivals[1] final appearance as an active quartet was in August, 1991 in Anacortes, WA.

The individual members of the quartet have since continued on to each win their second gold medal with a new quartet: lead Joe Connelly with Keepsake in 1992, tenor Kipp Buckner with Gas House Gang in 1993, and Jay Hawkins and Paul Gilman as bass and baritone of the 1995 champion Marquis. The Rivals are the only championship quartet in SPEBSQSA history to have all four members repeat as champions and bring the two time gold medalists count to twelve. In addition, Joe has won a 3rd gold medal with Platinum in 2000.

Second Edition

The Second Edition, comprised of: Fred Farrell, Tenor; David Harrington, Lead; Jamie Meyer, Bass; and Doug Harrington, Baritone; took the Barbershop world by storm when they won the 1989 International Quartet Championship. They released a CD, toured Internationally and eventually all married. Two of them married two of the 1989 Sweet Adeline Quartet Champions “Growing Girls”. Talk about keeping it in the family. They now all have children and live both in the United States and Sweden. The two quartets even toured together performing a combined show throughout the United States. The Thoroughbreds would like to take this opportunity to thank these four gentlemen for all the support and talent they gave us for all these years!

The Barons

Buddy Haggard, tenor, Carl Taylor, lead,
Bill Woodward, bass, and Ken Buckner, baritone.

The BARONS first registered with the Society in 1971 and have remained active in the Cardinal District since that time. Another combination of BARONS won the Cardinal District Championship in 1978.Establishing themselves as a top drawer comedy quartet, the BARONS have performed throughout the Midwest for these past 30+ years. After wearing down several lead singers over the years, Carl Taylor has emerged as the one who will "go the distance". Carl is a high school choral music teacher in Ashland, Kentucky. He is married to Bobbie Jo and has 2 children, Kerri and Brad. Buddy Haggard, tenor, and Bill Woodward, bass, are the originals and have sung together in the BARONS, and other quartets, for nearly 40 years. Buddy is retired, lives in Winchester, Kentucky and is married to Phyllis. They have 2 children, Elisa and Ron. Bill is also retired but still piddles around doing odd jobs mostly for his friends and neighbors. Bill and Charlotte have one son, Alan, and reside in Lexington, Kentucky. Ken Buckner, baritone, now lives in The Villages, Florida with his wife Hollie. He replaced the baritone of 26 years in August of 2001. Ken previously sang with the Citations. Ken and Hollie have two sons, Kipp and Todd. Together this combination of BARONS has over 130 years of membership in SPEBSQSA. The BARONS are honored to have been selected as the 2003 International Seniors Champions.
